

PALAZZINA UFFICI

An aerial photograph of an industrial and office complex. The image shows several buildings with different roof colors and styles. A large red-roofed building is the central focus, with a smaller brown-roofed building to its left and a smaller brown-roofed building to its right. A paved road with a crosswalk runs horizontally across the bottom of the image. A dashed cyan line outlines the perimeter of the main complex. The surrounding area includes other buildings, parking lots, and green spaces.
